

The Seth Forecast for 2016

Copyright © 2015 Mark Allen Frost All Rights Reserved

Welcome to my Forecast. Let us begin with a reminder of your current state of existence, as a seeker of wisdom...

The neo-renaissance in human thought and expression is well underway within all of the domains of human experience. We have referred to this as the Post-Shift Environment in our books. The Third-Dimensional Shift has occurred and many of you are now quite able to experience your multi-dimensional reality. You are multi-tasking, in that, you are able to experience yourself grounded within the 3rd Dimensional experience, while at the same time you are peeking in on yourself as you exist in other dimensions. These dimensions are numerous. You have the 4th Dimension, the Home Dimension, as we also call it. This is the Afterlife dimension. Yet beyond that, many of you are bravely going where your neighbors may fear to tread, if I may add some humor.

And so you find yourself connecting with Past Lives that exist for you extra-dimensionally, for the past and probable future are simply other dimensions that you may visit if you are so inclined. In a sense, you are taking this New Consciousness of yours out for a test drive, to see what it can do.

This new-found facility with consciousness exploration that you are experiencing is part of a greater awakening of humanity that is ongoing. Things are different now. There are many reasons to celebrate. The fear and anger are diminishing as Courage and Loving Understanding take their place. Within this Neo-renaissance you are reminded that you are capable of doing anything you wish. You are empowered, Dear Reader, as you identify your Issues and learn your Lessons in physical reality.

I will not dwell on these basics. Let me just say that you are experiencing the Positive Manifestation to the precise degree that you are growing and moving forward in your Soul's Evolution. In other words, if you are Courageously Loving in thought and deed, you are most probably living on the New Earth as others refer to it. Let us move on from that assessment and see where it may lead...

Back Engineering the Positive Manifestation

Might we assume that you are awakening at this time? My guess is that you are veritably DRIVEN to find the Truth of your reality. And through a coincidence of experience and training, perhaps, you have arrived at my door.

Now the first question that occurs as you find that you are achieving Higher Consciousness is this: “How do I continue this elevated state? How do I make it last?” you ask yourself. For to awaken in this timeframe, is to feel the breath of ecstasy upon your brow. It feels good, Dear Reader, and so you naturally look for ways to prolong the experience. You are looking for more than the Momentary Awakening, then. You want the depth experience of rapture.

This ecstasy, this rapture, this overwhelming Feeling Tone of pleasure, power and gratitude IS the awakening experience. It is also the Best Case Scenario, as I have described it for you in my new material. It is the ideal, is it not, this momentary awakening that you are courting in your waking reality?

Now as such, as an ideal, this state of consciousness as it is expressed in your current awakening moments has a history. You the Reality Creator are responsible for it, for you have laid the groundwork for it through the positive thoughts, emotions and imagery that you re-create moment-to-moment in your pursuit of this awakening. Therefore, a Back Engineering is called for, here, in which you-the-student remember what came before. What have you done over the days, weeks and months since you first began your Regimen of Awakening?

You do remember... then it is a simple matter to reproduce in thought and deed what you have done to bring yourself forward in your Soul's evolution. You re-create the awakening moment, moment-after moment, until you are experiencing a sustained moment of awakening, one that has depth, ecstasy, power within it. Back Engineering the BCS we call this regimen. Now I will continue with the forecast.

Seth Entity Human Counterparts

This report on the state of the collective consciousness of humanity is for a group I call the Seth Entity Human Counterparts. You know who you are. This material will possibly appear nonsensical to those of you who are not familiar with this Teaching of mine. Now if you are looking for the Negative Probabilities that may manifest in the modern world in the coming year, go to the last page and you will find that material. For the counterparts...

Remember: when you are on this path, you always have a choice. You may support the status quo reality or you may do something different, and consciously co-create your world with your Source as your Guide. Please note that there is this assumption that, like Mark, you have successfully contacted your Guide and you are experiencing your multi-dimensional reality under their tutelage. If this is not yet the case, I implore you to go within at the nearest available opportunity. Go within, Dear Reader, and make that connection. Then you simply repeat as needed.

And now for my piece on the current and future trends of manifestation that I see un-folding for you in your current system of reality. This year I will provide a concise forecast. These are the basics...

Trends in Reality Creation

All That Is expresses itself thoroughly in each moment of your perceived reality. Following are some potentials that this Evolutionary Consciousness explores during the eternal drama of manifestation.

Ancient Wisdom - Personal Empowerment

The Ancient Wisdom is our term for the source of Truth in your system. It is a communication channel that is open to those of you who are awakening at this time. As you disconnect from the status quo and as you intentionally connect to this information stream in your times of meditation, or when you are simply enjoying nature, at the seashore or in a forest, you receive answers to your questions on any subject. In this way, as you the individual awaken to your power, humanity as a collective of humans awakens to the synergy of the collective.

The Shift - A Cycle of Renewal

The Shift in Consciousness has occurred as more and more of you began to multi-task, that is, you began to focus on the Fourth Dimension and beyond, even as you maintained clarity within the Third Dimensional gridwork of Earth. This is a very natural cycle of renewal that will take humanity into a higher frequency of expression. I have likened this to a seasonal change as from Spring to Summer. However, this cycle of renewal has been centuries in the making.

Changing of the Guard - The Visionary Leader

For you-the-reader, there may have been this change in perception of who you are over the last year. This is an identity shift that is occurring for humans generally. You are becoming dissatisfied with your Negative Leaders. You are waking-up to your power as a Reality Creator. We have identified this new sense of personal identity as the Visionary Leader. Within all collectives great and small the Visionary Leader is coming forward to lead by example for the highest good of all concerned. During the Changing of the Guard, the Negative Leaders are pushed out to be replaced by awakened humans.

Secrets Revealed - Healing the Past

The individual awakens through a thorough examination of their individual psyche. The Negative Events from the past, those that have created persisting Negative Emotions of shame, fear and resentment, are recollected objectively. The volatility of this material is neutralized in the process of assessment. This practice heals the individual even as the relentless repression of this material continues to damage the collective. The secrets of those in high office, of celebrities and so on, will be revealed in the Negative Media even as the shameful skeletons in the closet of the Average Citizen ask to be released.

Goddess Rediscovered - GA Remembered

The Divine Feminine archetype is resonating within the Collective Consciousness via the Telepathic Network. This influence will be felt by all of you, as memories of lifetimes lived in the GA and other matriarchies come to mind. All of the institutions of mankind are subject to the softening energies of this Gestalt of Consciousness. The individual psyche is adapting to this new way of being in the Third Dimension. For more information on the GA matriarchy, read our book Mystery Civilizations.

Expecting the Worst - Anticipating the Positive

As the collective transforms from the Feudal to the Visionary, the tendency for the Average Citizen to focus on Negative Outcomes will diminish. The Negative Media continue to lose credibility in the eyes of the people. As each of you begins to go within to take your own advice, authorities of all types lose credence. The Inner Authority, the Source, the Ancient Wisdom becomes paramount. It will become possible to dream of a far better future for yourself and your family than you have been able to imagine up to this point.

Isolationist – Neo-tribal Collective

The benefits of belonging and the therapeutic Sanctuary experienced while living in tribal collectives over the millennia come to mind. This Neo-tribal influence rises up to be acknowledged as a dim ancestral memory. Suddenly the desire is to find community first and foremost. The isolationist practicing in front of their computer is compelled to go out and create value in groups.

The Social Domain

My Assertions

The Neo-tribal Effect empowers the Average Citizen to remember their connection to the global tribe of humanity. The attempts by demagogues to inflame racism and intolerance will eventually fail.

It is an election year in the US. The Negative Leaders are making a last stand in the political arena. As a group, they know that their days are numbered. They are becoming radicalized and will appeal to the baser emotions of the human psychology. They will attempt to present limited choices and will try to pull their constituencies into an either/or dilemma. Of course the growing truth is that there is an abundance of choices that one may make in this regard. You are not trapped within a particular political party. That is an illusion. You are never unable. You are always powerful and strong.

As you begin to communicate with your Source, and as you turn away from the propaganda of authorities, you find that you are no longer within the Double Bind. In the Double Bind, the traumatized victim literally “cannot leave and cannot stay.” You have been emotionally harmed by your governments and believe that your destiny is to remain powerless and unhappy, silent and unfulfilled. With your awakening comes the recognition that you have choices, that there are a multitude of other choices you may make with regards to ALL of the domains of human experience.

Now the traumatized “victim” subject to the perceived Double Bind, learns how to survive by projecting their consciousness outward, away from the trauma and depression of existence. They abdicate their responsibilities for Reality Creation. They surrender their power to the oppressor. But now you are awakening, are you not? Now you realize that you have participated in your own oppression, that you gave away your power in that moment of dissociation. It is a good feeling to own your own power once again, Dear Reader. It feels like ecstasy.

Predictions for the Social Domain

The Feudal System has been in place for centuries. Now it is falling apart to be rebuilt with Light. The Visionary System will be put in place over the coming years. You might think of this new structure as embodying the polar opposites of what has come before. Again, this is a renewal, a cycle of reformation in which Evolutionary Consciousness manifests for the highest good of ALL, not merely for those in perceived authority.

The renaissance is a revolution, also. “Enough is enough,” says the Average Citizen. The Visionary Leader, modeling appropriate behavior for others, leads by example. This is attractive. It fills the heart to see others engaged in activities that benefit the whole, rather than simply support the bottom line for the ruling elite. In a sense, you fall in love with one another.

You will begin to see these new types of leaders showing themselves in all collectives. You will identify them by the energy that comes out of their eyes.

The Political Domain

My Assertions

The Average Citizen discovers that the government propaganda is based on lies. The Ancient Wisdom is rediscovered as each person begins to look within and take their own advice. The natural phenomenon we call the Changing of the Guard dramatically alters the political landscape as Visionary Leaders continue to replace the Negative Leaders. Many of the Negative Leaders will not go quietly.

Supporting Content

The realization that everything you know, everything you have been taught, everything you see on the news, is false, a manipulation of facts, a contrivance of manufactured events, is astounding to the Average Citizen. It is liberating in the extreme, Dear Reader. It has the effect of literally resetting the belief system of the awakening human instantly. This average human under discussion, MUST enlarge the belief system enough to hold and comprehend, at least somewhat, the explosive revolutionary data. So they look for others who have already come to these conclusions. And they find that they are not alone, that there are others who have discovered the Truth, and are acting on those revelations.

In the New Year, awakening humans in the US and elsewhere will create new parties to reform the negligent and compromised political structures. The rise of the Divine Feminine will be felt in this endeavor. Women will be elected to high office throughout the country. Soon it will be commonplace to consider the female candidate as the better choice, all things considered. Again, these are bleedthroughs to the civilization of GA.

Predictions for the Political Domain

Providing you are allowed relatively free elections in the US Presidential race, Bernie Sanders will win his primary and with a female running mate will win the presidency by a landslide. The probabilities for this prediction manifesting are at 70% at this time.

Now in terms of all collectives, Visionary Leaders are stepping up to be recognized. The Negative Leaders are entrenched and feel as though they own their offices, rather than being elected by the people. Many of them will not go quietly. They will use any means open to them to subvert the will of the people.

The voting apparatus is compromised and may be skewed toward keeping the Negative Leaders in office. It is the responsibility of the new Visionary Leaders to lead through these conflicts in an ethical fashion. The Secrets Revealed phenomenon will cast light on the un-ethical practices that have compromised modern elections. This will result in scandals and resignations within the current administration and also among their adversaries.

Though the Negative Leaders currently in power will attempt to steal the election through manipulation of the votes, they will not succeed in the end. The election of the Visionary Leaders will overwhelm these efforts. As I have said, the landslide victory will leave no doubt who the Average Citizen has chosen to lead.

The Economic Domain

My Assertions

The Secrets Revealed phenomenon demonstrates to the Average Citizen that the economy is rigged in favor of the elites. They will rebel but not violently, for the most part.

Supporting Content

Of course, this revelation that the deck is stacked against the Average Citizen has been percolating within the collective consciousness for some time now. Yet only recently have there been those brave revolutionaries, the Speakers we call them, to share openly their discoveries, their visions. The Internet is their soap box. Their audience is those humans who are awakening at this time. They are awakening to the truth of the corrupt system. Simply agreeing that something must be done initiates the process of change. Casting a light on the shadows shows how unfair it is and how destructive it is to the individual, the family and the nation.

As a result of this mass awakening, the US will begin to get its affairs in order, in terms of creating an economy that works for the Average Citizen. Under the guidance of Visionary Leaders in the city, state, and national governments, laws will be passed that break up monopolies in all sectors. The banking monopolies will be broken up. The reign of corporations will end. A new era of fairness will begin in the economic domain.

Predictions for the Economic Domain

Wall Street will become regulated. The minimum wage will be raised. Unions will be established in great numbers and prosper in the new economy that values the worker. The US dollar will quickly increase in value over the course of the year. The US will begin to broaden its manufacturing base. Gold and Silver will climb steadily and then plateau at the end the year. As the new economy grows the global elite financiers who run the old economy will not be happy. (See the probable negative outcomes at the end of the forecast.)

The Spiritual Domain

My Assertions

The New Age Medicine Show goes main stream as millions embrace the religion of the GA mystery civilization, a matriarchy in which women were leaders in all of the institutions. The Divine Feminine rises within the Collective Consciousness to feminize society and spiritual practice.

Supporting Content

Your current culture is experiencing a bleedthrough to the times of the GA civilization. Your growing love of the occult, of the paranormal, of mediumship and psychism demonstrates this. The New Age Medicine Show represents a renewal of interest in this subject matter. And so you see that these events in which the psychic predicts and the alternative healer makes well, as if by magic, are becoming commonplace, even in middle America, where these unusual beliefs are seldom entertained.

Now the new spiritual practices that are growing out of the old patriarchal structures are centered on the feminine principle. Additionally, as I stated in previous forecasts, a Generalist Spirituality is growing by leaps and bounds. The practitioner identifies the various practices that they feel drawn to, that they resonate with, and include them in their spiritual observances.

Predictions for the Spiritual Domain

Under the direction of the Pope, the Catholic Church will become less authoritarian and patriarchal and more feminized.

The female-centered Generalist Spirituality practices will flourish.

The New Age Medicine Show will go mainstream. This indicates a return to the archaic methods of healing, education and spiritual practice.

Channeling will become popular, as more and more people begin to ask for Guidance from within, and then are pleasantly surprised to receive it.

Probable Negative Manifestations

World Economies

The world markets purposely shaken by the global elite financiers.

Earthquakes and Volcanic Activity

Catastrophic Earth Changes on the coasts and in the middle of the US.

The Shadow Government

False Flag events leading up to the day of the election in the US.

Weird Weather

Increasingly destructive bizarre weather events caused by weather modification technologies run amok.

Election Chaos

The Negative Leaders may not leave peacefully.

Militarized Police

Martial Law triggered before, during and after the 2016 election in the US.

A Confirmation of Sorts

NASA secrets revealed. Millions disappointed.
