The Premise

The Awakening of Humanity I have discussed in my new books is becoming increasingly recognizable to you in your Now Moments. You are creating this awakening with your thoughts. These thoughts give rise to Reality Constructs instantaneously in the moment of perception via the portal between your eyes. Therefore, you are advised to continue to be a conscientious steward of your Thought Content Projections.

For the student: I would like you to experiment with this idea of a Thought Content Projection. To the average viewer this concept is a pleasant and amusing construct. They have yet to prove to themselves that they create their Personal Realities. To you the Awakening Ones, it holds treasures of understanding and ecstasy. This is a Holographic Insert, in other words. Focus on the subtext, that is, the psychic meaning for you personally, and you will unlock this little puzzle of mine in your own way.

Current Events – The Negative Media

The Negative Media that supports the Negative Leaders and their accomplices are being transformed at this time. They are being found out for what they are by the Average Citizen. Now, these are commercial enterprises and so they will stubbornly resist for some time but will then surrender to the inevitable and begin to report the truth rather than propaganda. Additionally, citizen media collectives will become popular as sources of authentic news stories and other information.

For the student: In these matters of using my teaching to improve your life, you need not choose sides. There are, in fact, no sides, from my perspective. There is only the loving expression of All That Is that is available to you in the current moment. So Negative Media, Positive Media, you need not choose one or the other. However, do choose Love with a capital “L” now. That is my suggestion. (humorously)

Secrets Revealed

This awakening, this renewal, sees the faults and foibles of the rich and powerful displayed for all to see. On the personal level, the Average Citizen also recognizes their own issues of shame and fear that come up to be healed. Denial and intellectualization are avoided as Courageous Loving rules the day. This is the way to heal the past.

For the student: All of you are in your Issues at this time. What you have avoided in the past, comes to call NOW in your current moment. As this material comes up, write down what you are feeling. What images are coming to mind? What circular thoughts are helping to drive the experience? Write it all down and study these Findings.

Some Probable Trends for 2019

Social – The Average Citizen is awakening to the truth of personal and collective realities as connections are made to the Ancient Wisdom Communication Stream. This will lead to a consensus of opinion within the Telepathic Network that informs human thought, that these obvious responsibilities must be maintained: the needs of children, women, the disabled and elderly are fully supported. The Goddess is now rediscovered. The ancient matriarchy of GA is experienced through bleedthroughs in times of meditation and prayer.

For the student: My readers are aware of the GA culture and those gifts of tolerance, Love and Courage that are available through the bleedthrough experiences. In this year the dimensional barriers are quite thin for the practitioner. It will be quite easy for you to have your contact experiences with the matriarchy and be informed by this benevolent content stream. Why avoid such a pleasant experiment?

Political – The Changing of the Guard dynamic is now operative. The Shadow Government will be investigated worldwide. Corrupt politicians, corporate leaders, celebrities and others at fault will be charged and prosecuted. Visionary Leaders from all walks of life will begin to take the lead within all collectives, from families, to workplace groups to the highest offices of government. The Visionary Leader models appropriate behavior. They act for the highest good. They are in touch with the Divine and are motivated by Love with a capital “L”. You can see this goodwill energy coming out of their eyes.

For the student: A balancing is occurring in the affairs of humankind. This is the Awakening. It is founded in justice and Love. There is no vengeance. There is this desire to act accordingly, inspired by the higher authority of the Divine. Can you see the goodwill energy? Look in the mirror.

Economic – The Federal Reserve in the United States will be restructured and the gold standard will be resurrected. As the parasitic families that support the Feudal State are rendered powerless through the activities of Visionary Leaders everywhere, a new monetary system will evolve that supports the needs of the Average Citizen rather than the corporations and banks. This system will be replicated in countries around the world.

For the student: This dismantling will take some time to complete, yet those of you studying the phenomenon may already see that it is already begun in earnest. In my books I have discussed the negative subtext attached to gold and its harmful effects on the human consciousness. This subtext will change over the course of this transformation. It will change to a positive, life-affirming value. Over the years, this new value of gold will change the way humanity thinks about money and commerce.

Spiritual – Mainstream religions will flounder, reform and go back to the basics. The Generalist Spirituality Movement I have discussed in my books and the alternative practices will continue to gain strength. The New Age Medicine Show will continue to go mainstream and remind the Average Citizen that magic is real; that all religions are based on magic.

For the student: The Catholic Religion is failing. As many seek to find something else, they will explore what we have called the New Age Medicine Show in our books. The failure of the mainstream religions is not a failure of spirit, obviously. It is a failure of man and the practices of patriarchy. The Goddess awakens within the consciousness of those looking for freedom of expression.

Probable Negative Manifestations

Martial Law

In the US I see a high probability that Martial Law will be imposed briefly. The stunning revelations of the criminal acts carried out by beloved leaders and celebrities will plunge the culture into turmoil. The military will be ordered in to keep the peace. I do not see this lasting longer than a few months as the Average Citizen awakens to these disturbing facts.

For the student: You are an observer of humanity. You are a Scientist of Consciousness. It will be a test of your dedication, faith and virtue to experience the awakening events in full. You are forewarned so you may prepare yourself. All is well.

Terrorist Attack/False Flag

The Shadow Government worldwide is fighting back against the Visionary Leaders. False Flag events will be created throughout the year to terrorize the world. These efforts will fail as humanity awakens fully. The Shadow Government will be overthrown.

For the student: Again, the Shadow Government is being challenged at its base. The overthrow of these perpetrators will take some time. The False Flags we have discussed in past Forecasts will reappear in this year. By this I mean, the Shadow Government leaders will play upon the fears of the unawakened. Therefore, stay awake. Protect yourself with knowledge and strength.

Earth Changes

In 2017 and 2018 I suggested an increase in the occurrence of earthquakes and volcanoes respectively. For 2019 I see that Weather Wars between nations will be waged as the elite seek to control and terrorize populations. Super storms will become commonplace. The Average Citizen will be made aware of the intentional nature of these bizarre weather events and become politically active to fight the Shadow Government, the creators of these atrocities.

For the student: You are safe. You are in your Sanctuary when you create it, when you focus on it. It takes a moment to initialize this secure state, this “altared” state, by simply thinking about it when you are in your waking reality. Fear comes, uninvited. Then you create your Sanctuary. Again and again throughout the day you snap your fingers. You say the words. You embody the Sanctuary state. You are protected. You are warned.

Toxic Electronic Smog

A Tipping Point has been reached within the collective of aware citizens in the US and other developed nations. There is a growing consensus that cell phones are harmful to human health. Additionally, the entire expanding network of microwave and other communication technologies will be discovered to be creating a toxic electronic smog that negatively impacts human health and reproduction.

For the student: This is obvious. Extend your life on the planet by protecting yourself from harm. Protect yourself in your home. Protect yourself in the marketplace. Identify the effects of this electronic smog on your body, on your mentality. Wake up to what is going on around you. Lift the denial.

Chemtrail Awakening

The chemtrail justice movement will grow exponentially in the new year. As more and more media cover this phenomenon, more and more denying humans will awaken to the fact that the skies are becoming purposefully contaminated. Chemtrails will be perceived as an existential threat. Thus, as the Negative Media transforms into a Positive Media, integration occurs. People will believe their own eyes. Truth reveals and heals, you see.

For the student: The denial is lifting for millions of you. The Negative Media is losing its grip on the collective consciousness. You are the Vanguard in this regard. Your little awakenings to the truth compel you to share your Findings with others. It begins with family members and expands to embrace the community at large.

2019 will be a watershed year for the survival of humanity...
