The State of Awakening

The Premise

We have returned with another forecast for our readers after a two year absence. I do hope you will find something useful here. However, please give it a few weeks of consideration before you judge. There are many things to consider at this important juncture in your history. As always, we will proceed with a light touch and a bit of humor.

Now this is a forecast but it is also a map - a map to get you to the New Earth, which is a type of perception or state of consciousness. Courage, positivity and a touch of the Divine will help you reach your individual destinies. So please notice that even though I am usually not inclined to use the term destiny, I now insert it into our dialogue, for it captures that necessary sense of mystery and romance, does it not? Motivation is the goal here, then, as well as revelation: The motivation to do the practice of awakening and the inspiration you need to help create the great positive changes that lie ahead of you in your very new future.

This future belongs to the most daring and audacious, and might I say, the most humanitarian and Loving among you. You are the Vanguard. You are the Visionary Leaders my friends. Good Luck.

Mark's Note:

For the PREDICTIONS go to the last two pages of this document.

For your guide to the NEW EARTH read below.

Back to Basics

Dear Reader, generally speaking, it is my belief that you are currently awakening to the Truth - the Truth of yourself and the Truth of the world. Leaving behind denial and intellectualization - the tools the ego/intellect uses to maintain the status quo - you are "working on yourself", as the saying goes.

Perhaps you are using the Virtues of Humanity as a guide, as you try to embody these powerful states of consciousness. You are not succumbing to acting out the dictates of your ego/intellect, in other words.

Remember, the ego has demands that you feel you must meet. You may believe this is the great necessity of your existence. This psychological construct needs to be continuously validated and respected. That is the nature of the ego/intellect. So it is a difficult practice, at times, to embody the virtues even as you feel you MUST soothe the ego, patronize the ego, do as the ego/intellect tells you, so that you can "appear" to be normal to others in your collectives. This is the inside joke, you see. For in fact, your mission in life is the opposite: to always be as free and without restraints as you possibly can be. You are here for freedom and creativity.

Example: The Love virtue tells you to be loving in all moments of serial time. But can you be this Love Generator even though you are surrounded by angry people, or perhaps humans who are still asleep for the most part, obeying the orders of the authorities? This is the dilemma then. The way forward, the way to solve this dilemma, is to learn how to be your best self whenever it occurs to you throughout the day. You are practicing in these moments. No you will not be perfect, but you are headed in the right direction.

Precepts

In my Forecasts I often include descriptions of what I call the Seth Precepts. These are some dynamics of Reality Creation I have described in my books that may be of use to you as you explore your Personal Reality, such as You create your reality. Most of them have Holographic Inserts attached. This means that if you want more information about the concept, just consider it for a few moments in a state of resting and relaxation. More information is revealed to you on the subtle levels when you do. This is information directly related to You the Reader. Subtext we call it.

The Moment of Perception

Please bear with me... In the Moment of Perception you create your Personal Reality Field. Thus it has ever been, Dear Reader. Your field intersects - as in a Venn Diagram - with the Personal Reality Fields of everyone else in your personal world. As a creator of realities, you have a responsibility to monitor, assess and change if necessary, your creations within these Collectives, i.e., within the neighborhood you are in, the city you are in, the state or province you are in, and so on. My guidance here suggests that you simply ask yourself as you go about your day: "Am I being virtuous? Am I a humanitarian at this time?" If the answers are "NO", you can change your projection of Consciousness Units through the portal between your eyes that creates the reality in front of you.

Also, ask yourself throughout your waking period, "Does my ego/intellect dominate?" "Is this thought-stream contaminating my projections of Love, Peace and Forgiveness? If the answer from Soul Self is "Yes", retract that thought stream, reconsider and embody the Virtues. It can be entertaining and fun to do this.

The Moment of Understanding

This is where you are at this time... The Negative Leaders of the world, comprised of both the unelected and the elected, have used threat, restriction, deprivation, punishment and even murder to frighten and overcome the populations of the world. From my perspective, this should be clear to all of you in this era. In my last Forecast I warned you that this was the case and the situation was dire, but that there was hope in this matter. I identified a group of do-gooders that were addressing this issue of undue dominance and control. We have referred to this group as the Good Guys. For the last several years they have been quietly cleaning out the political, business and social institutions of the world, in a sense, purging the Negative Actors from these collectives. Now justice is in the air as the subjugated peoples of the planet begin to wake up and demand new leadership and punishment for the perpetrators.

Utopian Constructs vs Restriction and Lack

It is clear, what you must now do to save the planet is to focus on Utopian Constructs as the model for what you wish to create from your failing institutions. These intentions to do good, as you may notice, are the direct opposite of what the Negative Leaders and their sycophants in the general population wish for you for You the Reader.

The Healing Moment

Also in these documents I often place my simple prescriptions for health and how to achieve it. I will do that now. Briefly, in matters of mental health, which is the foundation of physical health broadly speaking - alluding to my proposition that illness is largely psychosomatic in origin - the re-pressed becomes the ex-pressed. The Negative Memories of past experiences are in a constant renewal process of coming up to the conscious mind to be dealt with, to be sorted out, you see. When one begins to "face the music" by acknowledging these memories in a systematic way, carefully and with great respect for the integrity of the psyche, the healing is accomplished. One begins to feel receptive to Love, compassion and forgiveness, which are the healing elements.

The Players

Now one important thing to remember as we discuss these predictions is the idea of the average participant. In the past we have called the two types of players The Authority and The Rebel. The Authority knows what they know. They are implacable. The Rebel seeks to challenge the dictatorial authority figure, being more interested in freedom and Truth and Love. We continue...

Probable Futures

Following are some simple projections of possible outcomes in the domains of living. The social, the political, the economic and the spiritual are briefly discussed, as to how the probable future realities may manifest for most of you.

The Social Domain

“Peace on Earth is the goal”

In my last Forecast two years ago I stated: "The Goddess IS rediscovered by individuals and collectives of all types... the pleasant Feeling Tones of Love and Pleasure are continuously emerging in your mental landscape and inspiring you to do good, to laugh, to love and embrace life."

The Shift

For two decades we have been predicting in our books and in private sessions, the great likelihood of a dramatic shift in the manifestation of humanity on Earth. Now you are in it. Now you are experiencing it for yourself as multiple timelines merge together in the Present. Specifically, in this time of renewal, via bleedthroughs from the GA matriarchy (The Glossary definitions at the back of all of our books.) and other paradisaical Utopian timelines, this shift becomes apparent to the researcher.

Goddess Rediscovered - Paradise Returned

The current agenda being enforced in schools and other social structures subverts traditional values that give society its cohesiveness while instituting its own catalog of opposite values as a replacement. Traditional values that support the nuclear family and traditional moral and ethical codes are replaced with a system that devalues and displaces workable generations-old structures in favor of a synthetic workaround that minimizes independence and the pursuit of character and worth for individuals.

Now the goddess energy, what we have called the Divine Feminine in our books, rises up as a compensating force here to wash away these synthetic amoral constructs within consciousness. Balance is achieved in this way. This is a natural process that will cause great alarm to some and great celebration for many. This is my humor.

The Political Domain

"Visionary Leadership is the goal"

In my last Forecast I made this statement: "For those who identify with this Rebel character I have described, you are enjoying an exciting change in the political leadership of your countries... as the Visionary Leaders step up to replace the Old Guard."

Changing of the Guard - The Visionary

In countries around the world, the Visionary Leaders are replacing the Negative Leaders in government and other institutions. But because the mainstream media does not cover these developments, most people are unaware of this phenomenon. Yet this too is changing as the Tipping Point has been reached making it impossible to keep this a secret. Alternative Media will continue to tell the truth.

Election Truth

It is now common knowledge that the elections in the US and other countries have always been compromised but particularly since the introduction of electronic voting. As the fall of the Negative Leaders accelerates, the return to secure voting and election integrity will also.

The Victim Class

In past Forecasts I have referred to a group of people called The Victim Class. This constituency has been lied to by authorities and controlled for so many years that they have become complacent and without hope. As more is revealed to more people, the sleeping population will awaken completely. Many will be very angry at having been duped. The Victim Class will become the Justice Seekers.

The Economic Domain

"Prosperity for all is the goal"

In my last Forecast I made this statement: "Your prosperous thoughts, imagery and positive emotions literally seek out their counterparts in physical reality. Your intense desire to be rid of lack and to experience abundance assists the thought-grams of plenty you are entertaining into manifesting."

Parasite Economy - The New Economy

In my last Forecast I suggested a return to the Gold Standard was imminent and that of the parasite economy would be replaced with Debt Relief in the New Economy. It is two years later and this prediction is now apparent. Countries all around the world are disconnecting their economies from the Central Banks and their fiat currencies and creating their own currencies based on precious metals such as gold and silver and other national commodities. The New Economy will be one in which each country's currency will be on par with all national currencies on a 1:1 basis.

The Prosperity Sequence

The abundance scenario will roll out dramatically in 2024 and beyond. People will begin to value themselves at a higher level as Sovereign Beings. They will have a deep connection to Source and a desire to help others in a grand fashion. Without the need to make a living, most people will pursue what they love. Humanitarian efforts will lift others out of poverty. No more wars for the banks. Peace and prosperity for all.

The Spiritual Domain

"Love for all is the goal"

In my last Forecast I made this statement: "The desire is to connect with the non-physical beings... Perseverance in these matters leads to success, to establishing relationships with the gods and goddesses."

Ancient Wisdom - Awakening to the Truth

The Ancient Wisdom Communication Stream is my theorized network that allows the researcher access to all knowledge. This idea is similar to other concepts such as the Akashic Records and others. As the researcher begins to look within for answers, rather than to authorities, the answers come. One begins to take ones own advice, as we say. This is the first step in getting to "the truth of the matter" and also the beginning of the Personal Awakening.

The Negative Gods and the Gods of Love

The Awakening of Humanity is also an awakening to the gods of Love. In truth, the Negative gods are the inspiration for the Negative Leaders. They are energized, they are up-lifted, they become powerful as they tap into these sources. What we are calling the Good Guys in this and other documents, in contrast, are energized and uplifted and inspired by Jesus and other loving creators.
